

The New Jersey "Do Not Call" statute has finally resolved and stopped or limited most of the intrusive phone call from telephone marketers. The law works extremely well, and it should not be weakened in order to permit BIG BUSINESS to become wealthier. The FCC should adopt the NJ statute and then the issue would be resolved. It is time for the Federal government to enact laws which make its citizens the first priority, not the lobbyists.